

Thank you for your thoughtful interest making a lasting difference in your community through a gift to Saskatoon Public Library (SPL) in your will. It is important to us that your donation is administered as you intend. The following sample will language will help ensure that your instructions are carried out as you wish.

Sample Will Gift Wording

I give and bequeath

- a. the rest and residue (or % share of the residue), OR
- b. the sum of _____ dollars

to the Saskatoon Public Library at Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada for the purpose of supporting the area of greatest need as determined by the Board of Trustees.

Bequest for Specific Purposes

I give and bequeath

- a. the rest and residue (or % share of the residue), OR
- b. the sum of _____ dollars

to the Saskatoon Public Library at Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada for the purpose of supporting (describe specific area of support).

Since library services and programs change over time, it is strongly recommended that you speak with SPL about your intentions first to ensure that your gift can be carried out.

It is also recommended that you include instructions which will allow the Library to use your gift as closely as possible to your wishes should circumstances change unexpectedly:

In the event that unforeseen circumstances make the specified use or administration of this gift impossible or impractical to achieve, SPL's Board of Trustees is hereby authorized to amend the use of this gift while maintaining, as close as reasonably possible, its original spirit and intent.
